

MASTER CLASS
April 27, 2010
With Dr. Ian Moschenross
Monmouth College

Hello to all PAMTA members,

April 27 Dr. Ian Moschenross from Monmouth College will join us for a Master Class with four of our students.

If you have a student (better than the average bear) who would benefit and enjoy the experience, please have them submit to me by email or regular mail, a request to participate. The request is to include these items:

Name
Phone number
Age
Teacher
School
Selection and Composer
Why student would like to participate?
What PAMTA activity has student been involved?

The board will then review the applications on March 19 at the Board Meeting and select two Intermediate and two Advanced students.

The students will be notified as well as PAMTA members at the March 22 meeting.

Thank you for participating.
